

We say it your way

Patients, their relations and visitors as well as employers should not feel mute or deaf while staying at the Marienhospital, because of their foreign language.

The purpose of our project „We say it your way“ is to overcome this kind of speechlessness. To reach this aim written information are given in many languages at Marienhospital. There are many staff members educated in different foreign languages, who can help in communication problems.